

DIAMOND CREEK BASKETBALL CLUB – PENALTIES FOR BREACH OF CODE OF CONDUCT

The below outlines the penalties for breaches of the DCBC code of conduct. These penalties are separate to any penalties imposed by Diamond Valley Basketball Association.

Spectator/Coach

First breach: a verbal reminder of our code and signing our code of conduct

Second breach: one game/training suspension (including sibling games and trainings)

Third Breach: multiple weeks suspension (including sibling games and trainings)

Player

First breach:

U08-U12: a verbal reminder of our code either by a whole team meeting or individual meetings with parents

U14 and above: a whole team or individual meeting regarding our code of conduct, and required to sign the code of conduct

Second breach:

U08 – U12: Team/individual meeting and signing code of conduct

U14 and above: one week suspension from playing, with the expectation to sit on the bench in their uniform to support their team

Third Breach:

U08 – U12: one week suspension from playing, with the expectation to sit on the bench in their uniform to support their team

U14 and above: multiple weeks suspension

* If an incident is deemed a serious violation of our code of conduct or a threat to the safety of a child, it will be promptly escalated and addressed in accordance with our established procedures.